The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. Those schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evi lence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. 'In other words the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over.' On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value ($500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1867." A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700 besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX, that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, as that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

EDUCATIONAL.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

TERMS MODERATE AND ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

WE HOPE soon to be able to present a table, showing the probable increased expenses of the State government, and consequent enormous taxation, that will be entailed upon the people by the adoption of the negro Constitution, and by the Radical legislation of the mongrel Convention. It is the most profligate, extravagant and reckless body that ever assembled in any State,—composed, largely, of adventurers, who have no community of interest with our people, and negroes, who do not care how much the property of white men is taxed. The people are to be taxed, too, upon everything, from a frying pan up to a Bible, to pay these men—negroes included—eight dollars a day for the mischief which they have done and the ruin which they contemplate!

ELECTION FRAUDS IN NEW HAMPSHIRE. It is reported that, at the late election in New Hampshire, there were about 77,000 votes cast,—a number several thousand greater than ever before cast in the State, and equal to about one vote to every four of the population. The disparity between the report of the Radical and Democratic canvassers, several days before the election, is a strong suspicion on the part of Democrats that the Radicals had im[illegible] the surrounding States [illegible] returning population, and the results of the election confirm this suspicion. Money was used on this occasion very largely, in the purchase of votes by the Radicals, yet, with all this effort, the majority of the Radicals has been reduced.—The Democrats and Conservatives of New Hampshire deserve the thanks of the country for the gallant contest they maintained.

THE GREAT and paramount issue is: SHALL NEGROES or WHITE MEN RULE NORTH CAROLINA? All other issues are secondary and subordinate, and should be kept so.

OUR NOMINEE FOR GOVERNOR.

We raise to our mast-head, this morning, with pride and pleasure, the name of the Hon. THOMAS S. ASHE, of Anson, as the candidate of the Conservative party for the office of Governor of North Carolina.

This nomination was made by the State Executive Committee, on Saturday,—quite a full representation being in attendance.

Of unblemished and most admirable private character, of eminent attainments, of fine address, and excellent capacities as a public speaker, Mr. Ashe is one of the first and purest men in the State.

With him upholding the banner of white supremacy, civil liberty and Constitutional Union, we hope to march on to certain victory.

Let every Conservative in the State rally at once to the support of our noble ticket,—let the work of organization be thoroughly accomplished,—let no exertion or effort be spared in the line of patriotic duty—AND ALL WILL BE WELL!

GENERAL HANCOCK.—The few short months that Gen. Hancock has been engaged in the execution of the Reconstruction Acts, in Louisiana and Texas, vice Sheridan removed, he has done more to impress the excellencies of his character and his executive ability, upon the public mind, than all the District commanders combined, and even more than by his distinguished services in the late war. His orders have been judicious and well-timed, and his general demeanor, showing his great reverence for the Constitution and the laws, and his respect for the rights of all the people, have acted like a charm upon the hitherto disturbed condition of that District, and the consequence is, universal respect and obedience to the law and general quiet and good order. More than a year ago, Gen. Grant would have most heartily endorsed his action, but the malign influences of the "trooly loil," the vindictive and violent mean whites of the District, have been exerted upon the General of the Army and his friends, to the extent that he required Gen. Hancock to revoke orders, which his own mind had carefully pondered before issuing, and in which he now sees nothing but propriety and wisdom. Gen. H., like a good soldier, obeys the mandate of his superior, but, like a high-toned officer, feeling that bad results must follow, he asks the President to relieve him from the command.

Most earnest remonstrances have been sent to the President against his removal, and it is understood that the President is loth to consent to relieve an officer, whose entire administration he so heartily approves.

IS POVERTY A CRIME?—The affirmative of this proposition is the logical corollary of the so-called Constitution, which the Mongrel Convention has concocted. In the Article on Education, they have provided that all children, (white and black,) in the State, between certain ages, SHALL attend the public schools, if unable to obtain an education otherwise. AND THEY REFUSED to insert a proviso that separate schools for the races should be provided. So that the POOR MAN is forced to degrade his children by sending them to school with negro children!!

JUDICIAL.—Judge Fisher, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, whose conduct in the recent trial of Surratt was so generally condemned for its partizan character, and whose judicial ermine has been so recently soiled in his collusion with Stanton to prevent an immediate appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States by the President, on the Tenure-of office bill, has now added to his partisan character by deciding that Virginia is not a State in the Union, in direct contravention of the decision of six of the eight U. S. Supreme Court Judges, only a few days before. No party could desire a more subservient tool than he.

JNO. H. McLAUGHLIN, Esq., of Iredell, is recommended, by "Many Conservatives," in the Statesville American, as a candidate for Congress in the District, of which that county forms a part. Mr. McLaughlin can take the test-oath, and is one of the stanchest Conservatives in the State. He is deservedly esteemed and is uncompromisingly opposed to the designs of the negro-supremacists.

SEVERAL MATTERS that have transpired in the so-called, within a day or two past, demand our attention, but our time and space are too much engrossed to-day. We shall especially ventilate the infamous action of the miserable concern on the subject of "the intimidation of voters." Mr. Ellis' remarks on this subject shall appear in our next.

NEWBERN.—The Conservatives of this city are organizing upon a perfect plan.—Among other features of their organization is a Committee on Challenging and Registration. It consists of eighty gentlemen, and in the list we recognize the names of many of the best and staunchest men in the goodly Elm city. They are a noble set,—these Newbern Conservatives.

CANVASSERS.

The following have been added to the list since our last issue:

Union.—T L Marsh, C M T McCauley, D A Covington, W W Walkup and J E Moore.

Lyde.—N Beckwith, Jones Spencer, Dr M Selby and S S Moore.

SHALL NEGRO GUARDIANS BE APPOINTED FOR WHITE WARDS! That is one of the issues. The so-called Convention voted down a prohibition of this possible outrage!

SHALL WHITE CHILDREN BE APPRENTICED TO NEGRO MASTERS?—That is one of the issues. The mongrel Convention refused to prohibit such a thing!

RELIEF OF THE PEOPLE.

It is known that Mr. Rodman, of Beaufort, has been urging upon the Convention his favorite measure of Relief, which, by the way, is regarded by many as affording relief only in special cases. On Friday night, he made his last effort to push it through, when it was defeated. This was a sore lick. Perhaps he was as much interested in that measure as in any thing brought before the body. Other Radicals have been urging relief, but nothing which they could devise would do. At length, the Conservatives determined to try their hand.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, offered an ordinance, as a substitute for Mr. Rodman's, which seemed to meet the views of a majority, and which, after some amendment, passed its final reading, on Saturday. It is too long for insertion to day, but will appear to-morrow.

Mr. Rodman admitted that it was a triumph of the Conservatives, and seemed very, very sore under his defeat. Mr. Graham's ordinance is in the form of a stay-law, and is based upon the Convention ordinance of 1866, with several important amendments.

But how anxious this body must be to grant relief to the people, when, immediately upon the back of the foregoing ordinance for relief, the Radicals passed an ordinance, requiring the Legislature to make arrangements, BY TAXATION, for the payment of the interest on the State debt, commencing January 1869! This is relief with a vengeance. Can the people of North Carolina bear a tax amounting to nearly a million and a half of dollars, to pay interest, besides the Federal and State taxes?

But more anon. The ordinance will appear in our next.

RATIFICATION MEETING.

The White Men's Club of Raleigh held a Ratification Meeting at the Court House, on Saturday night. Notwithstanding the exceeding inclemency of the evening, there was a very large and enthusiastic attendance, and the meeting was a highly interesting one. The nomination of Mr. Ashe for Governor was heartily and cordially approved, and admirable speeches were made by Capt. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, and Mr. Robbins, of Rowan,—two of the best speeches we have had the pleasure of hearing for many a day. Mr. Davis was forcible and impressive, as he always is, while Mr. Robbins carried the house by storm by his withering satire and real, genuine eloquence.

Messrs. Leach, Engelhard and Bledsoe were called on, but excused themselves in brief and pertinent remarks. It was, altogether, a glorious evening, of which we shall have more to say hereafter.

IS IT SO?—A friend has handed us the following from the Standard of Saturday:

"The meetings at Kinston and Goldsboro, which were attended by Gov. Holden, Hon. Thos. Settle and others, were great successes.

In Carteret, Messrs. Arundel and Rumley, and in Lenoir, Mr. Parrott, have finally and unequivocally declared for the Republican party."

Our information is, that "the meetings at Kinston and Goldsboro," so far from being successes, were complete failures. Scarcely any white men attended the meetings or approved of the candidates.

We do not believe the statement that Jas. Rumley, Esq., of Carteret, or J. M. Parrott or J. A. Parrott, of Lenoir, have finally and unequivocally declared for the Republican party." Mr. Rumley is a quiet man, indisposed to be mixed up with partizan politics, but we do not believe that he, or either of the Messrs. Parrott of Lenoir, will vote for the new Constitution or for the Holden ticket. If our impression is incorrect, we hope those gentlemen will correct us. We shall take their silence as evidence that we are correct.

NEW YORK.—At the recent Democratic State Convention of New York, held at Albany, Mr. Philo White, of Oneida, (we presume, Philo White, Esq., formerly of this State,) moved the following resolution, which was referred:

Resolved further, That although there are many distinguished and favorite sons of the State of New York in the Democratic ranks who would, by their unblemished character, brilliant talents, and eminent public services, honor and dignify the highest official post under our government, yet, yielding up individual preference on the altar of our afflicted country, we would with all deference suggest that there is one among our eminent citizens whose gifts of heart and mind, cultivated intellect, suavity of manner as a gentleman, and ripe experience during a brilliant career of public service, would seem especially to point to him as the man adapted to the present great emergency, when our cherished Republican institutions are menaced with extinction; and we name as that man ex-Governor Horatio Seymour, of Oneida county.

Mr. Seymour adheres to his position not to be a Presidential candidate. He is one of the delegates for the State at large to the National Democratic Convention, to be held at New York, on the 4th of July next.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT TO THE PENNSYLVANIA CONSTITUTION.—The amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania giving the negroes the right to vote was finally debated last Tuesday evening, and afterwards voted upon. When the vote was taken there were found but thirteen honest Radicals who had the courage to vote in its favor, and seventy-three votes were cast against it. In view of the coming Presidential election, these cowardly fellows backed out of the support of their favorite measure, to which their party is committed from one end of the country to the other.—While these Radicals are willing enough to force negro suffrage on the people of the South at the point of the bayonet, they refuse to allow the question to go before the people of Pennsylvania. There never was a more significant instance of bad faith and double-dealing. What will the negroes of the South think of their friends of Pennsylvania deserting them at this critical period, simply because they have not the courage to stand by their principles? Cuffee and Sambo are patted on the back in the South because they can be made the instrument to enslave the whites, but in Pennsylvania they are deserted for fear of the indignation of the people.—They believe (Pa.) Democrat.

DOWN WITH THE MONGREL CONSTITUTION! That is the slogan.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

LOUISBURG, N. C., March 13, 1868.

Editors Sentinel: Appreciating your desire to keep posted as to the current events of the day, especially when those events indicate the character of the people politically, I will presume upon giving you a few notes relative to incidents that have transpired during the past several days in Louisburg.

This week is the March Term of the County Court, and, as usual, many of the yeomanry of the county were present. But little was done Monday, either in or out of Court. Tuesday was looked for with some deal of interest, it having been previously given out that Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, and Col. Dewesse, of Illinois, via Raleigh, victims to a chronic degree of Black Congressional fever, Messrs. Bledsoe and Jones, competitors for our State Senate, Hon. Wm. Eaton, Jr., of Warren, and Franklin's accomplished son, Capt. Jos. J. Davis, would address the public upon the impending crisis.

Mr. McDonald was the first to gather his crowd. Mounting the balcony of the Louisburg Hotel, very soon after his arrival, he proceeded to enlighten his fellow citizens. I have time only to say of him, that he said "he was not nor should not be held responsible for having been born white." He had not proceeded far, before the bell attached to the court house notified us that the white men of the county were assembling for the purpose of holding a Conservative meeting. The hall was soon crowded, leaving the mongrel whites, (a few only,) to harangue the colored people.

The meeting was called to order by Capt. Davis, and Dr. E. A. Crudup requested to preside. Capt. Davis was called upon to explain the object of the meeting, which he stated to be the organization of all true, white men of the county, for the purpose of defeating, if possible, the iniquitous and degrading Constitution that will be submitted for our ratification or rejection in a short time, framed, ostensibly, for the purpose of making us all rich and free, but which would really have the effect of making the rich poor, the poor miserably poor, and consigning us to a degree of slavery and degradation worse than that visited upon the people of France after the great French Revolution. His remarks were soul-stirring and patriotic throughout, frequently eliciting heavy applause. He ventilated several of the Radical nominees, among them Mr. Watts, who ran over the county on a former occasion in quest of dogs to hunt negroes down with, and a short time since running again after the negroes to get them to vote for him for Judge of this District.

Mr. Eaton was then introduced. He spoke at some length, forcibly and eloquently, handling the new Constitution and some of its advocates with telling effect. This distinguished gentleman evinced a degree of enthusiasm and fervor during the delivery of his speech, that brought tears even to the eyes of many of his hearers. I wish that his speech could be published in full. Suffice it to say that he sustained his reputation as a man of eminent abilities, a profound thinker and forcible orator.

A native son of old Franklin, but long since adopted son of Wake, Moses A. Bledsoe, was then loudly called. Mr. B. came forward and commenced by allusions to this, his first, visit to his native county in a public capacity, and felicitating himself greatly at the pleasure of again meeting so many of them, he then announced himself as a candidate for the suffrages of the Senatorial District of Wake and Franklin,—to represent, directly, the county of Wake,—as the nominee of the Conservative party of Wake. He then explained how, by Radical gorilla manipulation, the necessity of Franklin county's voting for a Senator to represent Wake county came about. He declared himself a white man still, and was proud to confess it,—that there are white men enough to rule North Carolina, of sufficient intelligence; they must and will rule her, and whenever the flag of the white men of this country should trail in the dust of a Radical negro victory, then should his body fall a martyr to its defence. He held up his black-white competitor to the infinite disgust and indignation of his hearers. He called for him,—wanted to look at him,—but Mr. Jones could not be found. Mr. B. told the citizens to listen to Mr. Jones if he should wish to address them, and notwithstanding he was loudly called for by the people, who were anxious to look on him,—he could not be found.—Nor did he show himself at all, as a speaker.

Mr. Bledsoe, en passant, paid his respects to the X. P. G. Mr. Holden was no little the sufferer therefor. Mr. B. read some passages from an address delivered by his Excellency (once and would be) in 1857—touching upon African slavery, its benefits to the country and what would result from its abolishment,—all of which, as subsequent events have shown, Mr. B. added, have proven Mr. Holden was a correct prognosticator. His entire speech was well timed, pointed and effective. He retired amidst thundering applause. He may rest assured of the White men of old Franklin.

A series of patriotic resolutions were adopted by the meeting, which have been sent you. Capt. J. J. Davis was nominated for the Senate, from Franklin county, but for private reasons, which his friends deemed sufficient, was permitted to decline the nomination.

The meeting adjourned to meet, en masse, in this place, on the 20th inst., at which time suitable candidates for the respective offices will be brought out. The youthful gentleman, whose legal acumen, (in the estimation of his associates) has gained for him the nomination for the Attorney Generalship—(and who, by the by, has found the climate about the Standard office more congenial than that about Concord)—was present, but only looked about one of the bar rooms of the town, and among his associates. Birds of a feather, &c. It is the first time I ever saw him, and I must say that I think the negroes were in bad company, especially. Deweese did not make his appearance. Old "Franklin will be all right.

Any other news of interest will be communicated. McKNIGHT.

SHALL WHITE MEN BE ENROLLED in the MILITIA with NEGROES,—perhaps under negro officers? That is one of the issues.

RESIGNATION OF ATTORNEY GEN. STANBERY.—Attorney General Stanbery tendered his resignation to the President last evening.

The resignation of the Attorney General is for the purpose of giving him free scope to defend the President. Mr. Stanbery states that his resigns because he does not desire it said he defends the President as Attorney General, when he does so simply as a private counsellor. The duties of the Attorney General are so arduous as to render it impossible for Mr. Stanbery to attend to them and at the same time conduct the President's defence.—Wash. Express.

THE MCCARDLE CASE.—It is thought by many persons, who believe the decision in this case will be against the military authorities, that the Supreme Court will not pass upon the reconstruction acts as a whole, but content itself with declaring that the military commission provision is unconstitutional.—Wash. Express.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN FRANKLIN.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Conservatives of Franklin was held in Louisburg, on Tuesday, the 10th.

The meeting was called to order by Captain J. J. Davis upon whose motion Dr. E. A. Crudup was called to preside, and Chas. H. Thomas and M. Lankford, Esqrs., were called upon to act as Secretaries.

Upon coming to the chair, Dr. Crudup acknowledged the compliment in a becoming manner, and called upon Capt. Davis to explain the object of the meeting, which he did in an appropriate way.

On motion of Captain Davis, a committee, consisting of one from each Captain's District was appointed to draft resolutions embodying the views of the meeting.—While the committee were devising the resolutions, Wm. Eaton, Esq., of Warren, was called for, and addressed the meeting in a wise and patriotic style.

After the conclusion of which the committee, through their chairman, Maj. D. S. Hill, submitted the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we, the white men of Franklin county, do most heartily approve and endorse the Declaration of Principles enunciated by the Convention of the Conservative people of North Carolina, at Raleigh, on the 5th and 6th of February last, and we pledge ourselves to exhaust every honorable means, and use every effort, to secure the triumph and establishment of those principles in our beloved State.

2. Resolved, That, while we entertain no unjust prejudices against the colored population, and are anxious to live with them on terms of peace and mutual good-feeling, by virtue they can rightly claim, we are constrained by the instinct of self-preservation, and by our devotion to civil liberty which is our birthright, to maintain strenuously the great principle that this is a white man's government, established by white men, for the benefit of white men; and that its preservation as the palladium of liberty for all, depends upon its control and administration by white men.

3. Resolved, That the issues involved in the pending contest are too momentous to permit us for a moment to yield to the influence of any former personal or partizan predilections or prejudices, and that the only tests of political orthodoxy we ought to require, are a firm and unwavering devotion to the doctrine of white supremacy in this country, and a determined opposition to social or political equality between the white and colored races.

4. Resolved, That we protest against and denounce the attempts on the part of the "so called" constitutional convention at Raleigh, to abolish and supercede the time-honored laws and institutions of our dear old State, and to foist upon us the wild experiments of fanaticism in other States in their stead; and that we will use our best efforts to defeat these dangerous innovations.

5. Resolved, That we approve the nominations for State officers made by our State Executive Committee, and pledge our utmost exertions for the success of the white man's ticket in North Carolina.

6. Resolved, That we approve of the plan of organization recommended by the State Conservative Convention, and in pursuance thereof the chairman is requested to appoint three or more Committee men in each Captain's District, to canvass their Districts and attend to matters of registration, &c.

Under the above resolution the following Committee men were appointed viz:

Louisburg—W H Furgerson, Rufus Pisice, J L Fergurson, Jos Murphey, Jas Winn, N M Hawkins, Henry Piessants, Peyton J Brown, Jr., Jno Williamson and Wm S Young.

Pugh's Hill—J B Littlejohn, R F Cook, Dr. P S Foster, Benj Wilson and Jno Wilson.

Perry's Mill—Robt Speed, Green Gupton, Wm Cooper and Burton Carr.

Cook's—Arch Williams, Jno Peace, Wm Collins, Arch Taylor, and Joshua Perry.

Davis'—Washington Harris, Wm Moore, Dr Lankford, Col Wm H Yarborough and Thos Davis.

Dunns'—Dr Fowler, Dr Theo H Mann, Robt Griffin, Capt Bains and Maj Arch Crudup.

Galloway's—Benj J King, J P Timberlake, J J Freeman and Wm K Martin.

Harris'—J Robt Jeffreys, Saml Harris, Jno Chambler and F P Pearce.

Franklinton—A C Perry, Fenner Thurston, Wilson Williams, W H Mitchell, Jno H Whitfield and Jas Joyner.

Hayesville—D D Overton, Jas Gill, Richd Winn, H Hight and Jas Perdue.

7. Resolved, That we approve, and will give our hearty support to, the nomination of Moses A. Bledsoe as one of the Senators from this Senatorial District, recently made by the Conservatives of Wake in their county Convention; and that this Convention do nominate ——— as their choice for the other Senator from our District.

8. Resolved, That the Chairman of this Convention be requested to appoint 25 delegates to represent this county in the District convention, to nominate a Conservative candidate for Congress, and delegates to the National Democratic Conservative Convention.

The following were appointed: John E Thomas, Buckner Debnam, W H Furguson, Fenner Tharrington, J A Hendley, J F Jones, W K Davis, Benj Wilson, H Hays, W B Foster, Jonas Wilson, jr, R A Speed, Richard G Wynne, Dr W W Green, Daniel S Hill, W T Collins, N M Hawkins, Alex Moore, A S Joyner, W J Branch, W S Young, H Hight, Dr E A Crudup, J B Littlejohn, James O Davis, Dr W H Davis.

Moses A. Bledsoe, Esq., of Wake county, being present, was loudly called, and, coming forward, entertained the meeting by one of his best efforts; handling Mr. W. U. Jones and his friend W. W. Holden in a trenchant style. The remarks of Mr. Bledsoe were received with rapturous applause, by all the white men present.

On motion, the chairman was requested to appoint a committee of three from each Captain's District to canvass their respective districts and attend to the registration.

On motion, the meeting adjourned to meet on Friday, the 20th inst., en masse.

THE SUPREME COURT.—Forney treats the late decision of the Supreme Court of the United States as to the status of the Confederate States during the war with the utmost contempt. Forney is nobody himself, but inasmuch as he is silly enough to blurt out the feelings of the Radical party, it is well enough to read what he says upon the subject. We quote:

"The decree of the Supreme Court possesses no more value in view of this historical fact than the resolutions of a town meeting. I propose to offset it with the New Hampshire election, which possesses the value of being a higher power even than the Supreme Court, with its political majority of one or two old men."

This is the language which the destructives apply to one of the co-ordinate departments of the Government. They have no more respect for constitutions, laws and personal rights, than they have for their reputations as gentlemen. Language is powerless to express the depth of depravity to which that party has sunk.

For the Sentinel.

Editors of Sentinel:—Under existing circumstances, we take great pleasure in recommending J. R. Thomas to the consideration of the people of this Congressional District, as a suitable person, in every respect, to represent our interests. It is but proper to state that Mr. Thomas has ever been an uncompromising Union man. During 1861 and '62, when Mr. Holden, backed by almost the entire Southern people, was for enlisting the "last man and the last dollar" for prosecuting the war, Mr. Thomas stood firm and immovable. Neither the enthusiasm of the people, nor the censure of personal friends, caused him to waver in word or deed. Amid triumph or defeat, during the war and up to its close, he was the same—under all circumstances his motto was, "I am a Union man." But when the war closed and blind fanaticism commenced rearing itself in our midst, Mr. Thomas declared himself in favor of a white man's government and placed himself firmly on the Conservative platform.

Whatever objection may be raised, on account of his Union proclivities during the war, all who know him are bound to admit that he has ever been a consistent man.—Having a full knowledge of his antecedents and present position, we shall urge his claims for nomination at the Henderson Convention,—knowing that, if he should be elected, he can conscientiously take any oath required from any member, let him hail from whatever section of the Union he may. And at the same time, we know Mr. Thomas to be so thoroughly identified with the Conservative party, that the white men in this Congressional District can, with entire confidence, look to him as an advocate of a white man's government throughout.

CONSERVATIVE MEN OF FRANKLIN.

DOWN WITH THE CONSTITUTION.—That is the watch-word of the white men of North Carolina.

Shall MARRIAGE BETWEEN NEGROES and WHITES—amalgamation,—be allowed? That is one of the issues.

THE RECONSTRUCTION LAWS OF THE SUPREME COURT.—So general is the belief that the Supreme Court will decide the Reconstruction laws unconstitutional, that the Radicals are making an effort to induce Grant to issue an order changing the time for the holding of the elections in Georgia and Florida. It is believed that Chief-Justice Chase's presence in the Senate in trying impeachment will not delay a decision in the McCardle case.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. World.

The Hon. James J. Babcock, of Connecticut, is reported to have closed a brilliant speech in New Hampshire with the following burst of eloquence: "If you choose to marry blacks you may do so, but as for myself, when I marry, I shall marry one of my own sex."

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

NIGHT SESSION.

FRIDAY, March 13, P. M.

Convention called to order at the usual hour.

Mr. Rodman, from the Committee on Relief, submitted a report, amending his former ordinance on Relief, and recommending its passage as amended. Also, amending Mr. Pool's ordinance to prevent the sacrifice of the property of debtors, unless it brings three-fourths of its value, and recommending its passage.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, opposed the report. He thought it should be put in a more compact form; the members would not know what they were voting for. It should be printed and laid on each member's desk.

Mr. Rodman urged the adoption of the report. He claimed that the measure had been amply discussed.

Mr. French, of Bladen, opposed the report. He characterized it as repudiation. He moved to postpone it indefinitely.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, said that as he thought the measure would not be postponed, and he feared the previous question would be called, he gave notice that he would offer an amendment.

The question recurred upon Mr. French's motion to postpone indefinitely.

The yeas and nays were demanded and called, and the vote stood yeas 17, nays 80.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, offered the following substitute: [We regret that we have no space for the substitute, to-day. It will appear to-morrow.]

Mr. Graham proceeded to give his objection to the report of the Committee.

Mr. Durham also opposed the report.

Mr. Rodman called the previous question, and the call was sustained.

The question recurred upon Mr. Graham's substitute, and the yeas and nays, being called, resulted in yeas 39, nays 24.

Mr. Heaton now moved to print both the report of the Committee and the substitute, and that they be made the special order for to-morrow, at 1 o'clock. Carried.

The Chair announced the Committee to draft an address to the people, in accordance with the resolution already passed, to consist of Messrs. Tourgee, Rodman and Gahagan.

The Chair said that gentlemen going home now had insisted upon drawing pay up to the time fixed by the Convention for adjournment. He wished to know the sense of the House on this matter.

Mr. Rich moved that the President be authorized to sign the warrants of those gentlemen going home, for pay up to the time of adjournment.

Hayes, of Halifax, (negro,) moved to lay the motion on the table. Lost.

The question recurred upon Mr. Rich's motion, which was put to a vote and lost.

Mr. Tourgee moved to take up the report of the committee, to whom was referred the ordinance in relation to the intimidation of voters.

The majority report of the committee was read. Mr. Tourgee explained the report and moved its adoption.

Mr. Ellis offered, as a substitute, the section of the Revised Code, in relation to the penalty for bribing an elector to give his vote; which, being put to a vote, was refused.

Mr. Durham branded the whole affair as another infamous scheme to complete the despotism which has been inaugurated in this State.

After a long debate, the previous question was called and sustained.

The question recurred upon the report, as presented by the committee, and the yeas and nays, being called upon its adoption, resulted in yeas 51, nays 15.

A quorum soon after not being present, the House adjourned.

MORNING SESSION.

SATURDAY, Mar. 14, 1868.

Convention was called to order at the usual hour.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Lennon, of the Convention.

Mr. Durham arose to a question of privilege. He wished to hear from the Committee appointed to enquire into the alleged frauds in his election.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) Chairman of that Committee, replied that a report would be submitted on Monday next.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The report of the Committee of 17, to whom was referred an ordinance entitled an ordinance providing for the restoration of the public credit, was taken up. The Committee reported back the ordinance, recommending the passage of the same, with the following amendments:

First, amend the title of said Ordinance, so as to read, "An Ordinance providing for the payment of the interest on the Public Debt."

Second, In line 8, between the words "for" and "of," strike out the words, "the resumption;" also, strike out the 10th. line, which reads as follows: "And the restoration of the public credit."

Also, add the following as a fourth section:

"This Ordinance shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage."

Mr Abbott arose and advocated his ordinance, and resented the charge that it was a scheme to advance the interest of Wall Street. As a proof of his desire to further the interest of the State, he alluded to his advocacy of different Railroad enterprises. Very nearly all of these bonds were in the hands of different corporations in this State, and not in the hands of Wall Street speculators. Mr. Abbott continued for some time to show how necessary it was to put the State bonds upon a firm and solid basis, before the Internal Improvements, now organized, could be carried into effect. To substantiate the above assertion, he read a letter from the President of the Western R. R. Company, declaring that the State must pay interest on her bonds, before the companies that held them could make them available.

Mr. Hodnett said that he was exceedingly unwell, and therefore could not enter into any elaborate argument upon the matter.—Those bonds, to which the gentleman alluded, were in the hands of parties that have not yet put them into market, and, they being unexpended, it did not follow, as the gentlemen (Mr. Abbott) argued, that unless the people were taxed to pay interest on them, that the credit of the State would be lost. Almost all of the old bonds were in the hands of Northern capitalists, and he opposed the policy of taxing an impoverished people, at this time of their distress, to pay the interest on those bonds. He was no repudiator, he would never vote for or sanction repudiation of any kind of debts.—But the thing he most complained of was an evident purpose, on the part of the leading men on this floor, to legislate for all interests that were Northward, and our poor old State and her interest a e left completely in the back ground. Here, gentlemen, is an ordinance that proposes to tax this poor people for over a million of dollars—and for what? To fill the pockets of Northern capitalists.—The ordinance says that the Legislature shall pay in cash, the interest falling due on and after the 1st January, 1869, upon that portion of the bonds of the State, which are dated prior to May 20th, 1861. Now, how is this money to be raised, save by further grinding down our poor people? I have no doubt that, on yesterday, the Brokers on Wall Street were made glad by the passage of the measure. I will warrant you that they received the news in twenty minutes after it had passed. I repeat, sir, and charge, that, in the person of some gentlemen, Wall Street is represented, to the detriment of our old State. What do our eyes behold every day? We see Northern men, not members of this body, continually in the lobbies, evidently more interested in the proceedings than one half of the delegates. Here is Mr. Tourgee—a boy and a stranger boy at that—who has completely overturned our time-honored and revered judicial system; and how was he allowed to do it? Simply because he is allied to the Northern influence that completely rules this Convention.

Mr. Hodnett continued to address the Convention on this subject, and, in closing, he alluded to the unjust provisions of the Reconstruction acts. He said that he felt hurt and mortified, that the Government of his love and devotion should turn its back upon friends that had never for an instant faltered in their allegiance.

Mr. H. proceeded to show the other objectionable features of those acts, when

Mr. May called him to order, saying that his time had long since expired, and, besides, the Reconstruction acts had nothing to do with the subject under debate.

Mr. Hodnett then took his seat.

Mr. Heaton characterized Mr. Hodnett's remarks as being uttered simply to engender a feeling of bitterness and prejudice between the natives of the State and gentlemen of Northern birth.

Mr. May next took the floor in advocacy of the ordinance and made a speech of some length, during which he said that the reason Southern white men were prejudiced against Yankees or Northernmen, was that they (the Yankees) came among us and knocked off the chains and fetters of the true and loyal men.

Mr. Welker said, so long as they had adopted in the Bill of Rights a section assuming the old State debt, it was just and proper that the Convention should make some provision for its payment.

Mr. Durham said that he had opposed the 6th. section of the Bill of Rights, and he opposed this ordinance. He wished the matter to be left to the Legislature. Mr. D. wished to know if the ordinance was intended to be incorporated into the Constitution.

Mr. Heaton replied "No, that it was simply a separate ordinance."

Mr. Durham said, what binding effect will this have then? None, according to the decision of Grant, Pope and Canby, unless they choose to enforce it. I protest against this measure to tax the already over burdened people. North Carolina not only owes a large debt, but nearly four millions of dollars of interest due upon the bonds.—The people are not in a condition now to pay the interest upon the public debt. We can't pay the present taxes, yet you propose to levy an additional tax of over a million of dollars, annually, upon so poor a people. All such legislation must result in utterly ruining the people, who are now already on the brink of ruin. I know the importance of pushing to completion our internal improvement enterprises, but, sir, I am opposed to crushing our people under a load of taxes. Even now, they are too heavy for them to bear. If either the people or the railroads are to suffer, let the railroads suffer. Leave the matter to the people. Let the people instruct their representatives in the Legislature, whether or not they are now willing to assume the interest on the debt.

Mr. Abbott called the previous question, but withdrew it in order to let Mr. Candler make some statements. Mr. Candler spoke in opposition to the ordinance. He, Candler, offered the following amendment: 'Strike out "1869," in sections 3 and 4, and insert "1871."'

Mr. King, of Lenoir, moved to add to section 5 the words "the Legislature shall have power to alter, amend or repeal this ordinance."

Mr. Abbott said that if Mr. Candler's amendment was adopted, he would vote against the bill.

Mr. Rodman spoke for some time, advocating the passage of the ordinance.

Mr. Abbott called the previous question, the call was sustained, and the question recurred upon Mr. King's amendment. The yeas and nays being called upon its passage resulted in its defeat, by a vote of yeas 31, nays 64.

The question recurred upon Mr. Candler's amendment, and he called for the yeas and nays. They were refused and the amendment was voted down.

The question recurred upon the ordinance. The yeas and nays, being called, resulted in the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Abbott, Andrews, Ashley, Blume, Bryan, Carey, (negro,) Carter, Cherry, (negro,) Chillson, Colgrove, Congleton, Cox, Dickey, Dowd, Eppes, (negro,) Fisher, Forkner, Franklin, French, of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, French, of Chowan, Fullings, Gahagan, Galloway, (negro,) Glover, Gully, Gunter, Hall, Harris, of Wake, (negro,) Hay, Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, (negro,) Heaton, Highsmith, (negro,) Hobbs, Hollowell, Hood, (negro,) Hyman, (negro,) Jones, of Caldwell, Kinney, Laflin, Lee, (negro,) Legg, Mann, May, Mayo, (negro,) Marshall, McDonald, of Moore, Morton, Murphy, Nance, Nicholson, Patrick, Parker, Parks, Petree, Peterson, Pierson, (negro,) Pool, Ragland, Ray, Read, Renfrow, Rich, Robbins, (negro,) Rodman, Rose, Smith, Stilwell, Taylor, Trogden, Tucker, Williams, of Wake.—65.

The hour of one o'clock having arrived, the Relief question, being the special order, was taken up and considered.

The substitute offered by Mr. Graham, of Orange, for Mr. Rodman's ordinance, as amended and reported back last night by the Committee on Relief, which was adopted in lieu of said ordinance, was discussed.

Mr. Graham made several material amendments in his substitute.

The question recurred on the substitute as amended. The yeas and nays were called and resulted in the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Abbott, Andrews, Aydlott, Baker, Blume, Bradley, Bryan, Carey, (negro,) Carter, Cherry, (negro,) Chillson, Congleton, Daniel, Dowd, Duckworth, Durham, Etheridge, Franklin, French, of Chowan, Gahagan, Galloway, (negro,) Glover, Graham, of Montgomery, Graham of Orange, Gully, Gunter, Hare, Hay, Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, (negro,) Heaton, Highsmith, (negro,) Hobbs, Holt, Hyman, (negro,) Jones, of Caldwell, Kinney, Laflin, Legg, May, Mayo, (negro,) Marshall, Merritt, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, Moore, Morton, Mullican, Murphy, Nance, Newsom, Parks, Read, Rich, Rodman, Sanderlin, Smith, Stilwell, Taylor, Teague, Turner, Welker and Hall.—65.

ABOUT IMPEACHMENT.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 14, M.

The action of the Senate, yesterday, in remaining over two hours in consultation, and coming into open Court with a prepared order, after a secret debate and votes, is deprecated by the Managers and the President's counsel. It is argued that the real trial is taking place in secret, and that the efforts of the Managers and Counsel are mere show work.

The President's counsel, yesterday, seemed perfectly disarmed, after the return of the Senate, and submitted to the result of its secret deliberations without remonstrance.

Our Midnight Dispatches

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 14, P. M.

Grant decides that the reconstruction laws don't authorize the Military Commanders to change the election days, as fixed by the Conventions.

Florida Radicals here say that opposition to the Convention in that State is mainly confined to the negroes.

Grant received a dispatch from Thomas, saying, in effect, that the enemies of the present Government, in Tennessee, were organizing for resistance to the laws and to get control of the State.

Grant replied, ordering Thomas to use all the forces at his command, to preserve peace and protect the State authorities in the execution of the laws, and to report if more troops were needed.

Persons conversant with Senatorial feelings say the real danger to the President is narrowed down to the fact of appointing Thomas ad interim Secretary of War.

Butler's charge stands no chance, and the illegality of Stanton's removal is doubted by many Senators.

Joseph B. Bradley has filed a petition for mandamus to compel the District Supreme Court to restore him to the bar.

Secretary Browning divides his attention between the Interior Department and Attorney-General's office.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 14, P. M.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, March 14, P. M.

A section of the Franchise report, requiring all officers of the State to take an oath, that "I recognize and accept the civil and political equality of all men before the law," was adopted.

A communication was received from Gen. Schofield, suggesting that the Convention authorize the State Treasurer to issue certificates of indebtedness to pay the expenses of the ratification election, and the registration revision preceding it, for neither of which had Congress appropriated money.

He estimates the cost at seventy-five or one hundred thousand dollars.

A general debate on money matters sprung up, in which it was stated that the printer of the Convention had had no pay for three weeks and there was no money to pay him.

Registration here closed to-day. The blacks are 30 votes ahead in a total registration of 12,000.

PARTIZANISM.—The strength of old party feelings is truly surprising. We frequently hear men complaining on the one hand that "the Conservative party" is nothing but the old Democratic party re-organized, and on the other that it is the old Whig party revived. The fact that we hear these complaints from members of both the old parties shows the strength of the old prejudices. But the fact is that both are mistaken. The Conservative organization is not a party at all in the usual acceptation of the term. It is but a temporary coalition of both the old parties—a union of the Conservative men of all parties to save the State from the degradation of radical misrule and oppression. The present issues are of a grave and momentous character and rise high above all considerations of a mere party character. They appeal, in the eloquent and patriotic language of Mr. Shober, in his speech in the Conservative meeting at the Court House of Saturday last, to the individual patriotism of every man who has the good of the State and the preservation of Constitutional liberty at heart. The platform laid down is not a party platform, but a platform which presents the issues of the hour—issues which affect no party but the radical party, but which affect the dearest interest of every good citizen and every decent white man.—We trust and believe that there is yet patriotism enough left in the land to override partizan prejudices and to save the country. God forbid that the day should ever come when party prejudices shall be so strong and party lines be so tightly drawn, that all good men may not be able unite in a common effort to save the country! God forbid that the day should ever come when the spirit of party shall triumph over the spirit of patriotism! Whenever that day comes the sun of our liberties will set forever.—Old North State.

REPORTED FAILURE.—Our Petersburg correspondent (March 12) says: "I regret to have to report the failure of an old and prominent mercantile house in this city—that of Tod, Pugh & Co. Their paper went to protest yesterday, and to-day the fact is publicly spoken of. The members of the firm are gentlemen of high character, and have the sympathies of the community."—Rich. Dispatch.

Five hundred petitions in bankruptcy were filed in New York for the week ending Monday, being a large increase over the preceding week. There are sixty million dollars' worth of goods in bond there, which the importers and others are unable to pay the duties and internal taxes on at the present time.

TENNESSEE.—There are about 140,000 white voters in Tennessee. Of these 100,000 are disfranchised by a Radical edict sustained by military force. At the same time, 100,000 negroes are made voters.

The President has appointed Mr. Browning, Secretary of the Interior, to be acting Attorney General.

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members,—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudices against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year,		$8 00
" "	six months,	4 00
" "	three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year,		4 00
" "	six months,	2 00
" "	three months,	1 00
Weekly "	for one year,	2 00
" "	six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.
